

Golf day helps fund Cittamani Hospice

THE Sunshine Coast business community swung behind the Henzells Pelican Waters Foundation 2014 Charity Golf and Dinner Classic, with a record field contesting the event on Friday.

Henzells and Pelican Waters director Garry Waters said the annual charity classic at Pelican Waters Golf Club was a sell-out with about 150 players in 36 teams teeing off, raising funds for the Cittamani Hospice Service.

"A big thanks must go to major sponsors ANZ who had the naming rights partner for the golf classic and Caloundra City Autos who backed the evening casino night and charity dinner at Pelican Waters Golf Resort and Spa," Mr Waters said.

"Thanks also to all the participants and additional sponsors who have given up their time and put their hands in their pockets to make this event possible."

Henzells
Pelican Waters
Foundation 2014
Charity Golf

LEFT: Charlotte Nolan, Alexis Bell, Min Swann, Samantha Stanton and Kaitlin Stanton.

Jimmy Van Den Bremer and Michelle Hurd.

CHARITY DAY: Sunshine greeted Luke Carter at the Henzells Pelican Waters Foundation 2014 golf day.

PHOTOS: ERLE LEVEY

Nick Gils,
Noel Shipp
and Andrew Boyd.

Lesley Bradley of the Cittamani Hospice Service with Michael Berry and Sandy Callaghan of the Pelican Waters Foundation.

Andrew Morcom and Carolyn Browne.

Lisa Storey-Wilson and Doug Wilson.

Luke Carter, Matt Tucker and Dean Logsdale.

Dean Logsdale, Lucas Sambrooks and Matt Tucker.

Vicky Sheridan and Pelican Waters golf professional Alan Staines at the charity golf day.

ABOVE: Jason Jaeger and Peter Cooper.

LEFT: Marini Peries has her hands full.

Hamish Pressland and Roy Henzell.

Rod Russell gets the clubs ready for his round yesterday.

Daily rugby league writer Tony Durkin with Pelican Waters golf professional Alan Staines.